Kappa Gamma Pi Cornaro Scholarship

Frequently Asked Questions

Eligibility:

1. Who is eligible to apply for the Cornaro Scholarship?

- Applicants must have been elected to membership in Kappa Gamma Pi by a Kappa-affiliated college or university and be a current dues payer. Kappas elected between June 2022-May 2024 are considered current dues payers.
- Previous KGP Cornaro Scholarship recipients (Cornaro Scholars) are not eligible to apply again for the scholarship.

2. How can I find out if I've paid dues?

- Request your dues payment status from the Executive Secretary at membership@kappagammapi.org OR login to your user account at <https://engage.kappagammapi.org>. You'll see by your name if you're a dues paying member or a non-dues paying member.

3. Can I pay my dues now and still apply for the scholarship?

- Absolutely. To pay your dues, please login to your user account at <https://engage.kappagammapi.org> or contact our Executive Secretary at membership@kappagammapi.org or call (734) 393-1222.

4. How much are the dues?

- National dues are $50 per year.

5. Can I apply as a doctoral student?

- Yes, as long as you were not a prior recipient of the scholarship.

6. Are there any enrollment requirements in terms of number of credits we need to be taking in order to be eligible?

- You must show proof of acceptance into the graduate level program (Official Letter of Acceptance) even if you are already enrolled.
- There is no requirement for the number of credits that you will be taking in the graduate program.

7. Is the scholarship restricted to students enrolling in United States schools?

- Non-US graduate programs are acceptable for the Cornaro Scholarship.

8. I will graduate in May from law school, but I was curious if this scholarship applies to past/future graduate school?

- The scholarship is for future studies and cannot be applied retroactively.

Application Requirements:

9. What do I need to do to apply?

- Complete an application, following all instructions correctly, and submit by June 1.
- Be sure to submit all of your application documents as a single PDF file. If you are not sure how to convert multiple documents into one PDF file, please seek local assistance. Failure to do so impacts acceptance of your application.
- Note: You must already be accepted (and show proof of acceptance) into an accredited graduate or professional program as part of your application documentation.

10. Who can provide a “letter of recommendation”?

- Letters should be from someone who knows you and can speak to your qualifications related to the scholarship criteria cited in the application.
- Provide 2 letters of recommendation.
- Letters must be on official letterhead. Email “letters” are not acceptable.

11. The staff members writing my recommendation letters are unable to include official letterhead on their letters. Will you still accept these letters in my application?

- Most letters of recommendation come from academic, employment, organizational, religious, and non-profit staff. Those organizations generally have official letterhead for external correspondence.

12. For the scholarship application I have the paper copy. Should I fill it out and scan it to my file or do I need an electronic copy? Also, should the recommendation letters be sent to me or directly to you?

- Fill out the paper copy of the application. This can then be scanned to include in one PDF file.
- Have the recommendation letters sent to you and include it in the one PDF file that you submit.

13. I am currently in my second year at XXX school. One of the requirements is the letter of acceptance from my graduate program. Instead, would I be able to send a current transcript, or do you require the letter of acceptance?

- We will need an official statement on your program letterhead that states you are currently enrolled in the XXX program.

14. How early can I submit my application?

- You can submit your completed application any time, as long as it is received by midnight June 1.

15. Is it possible to get an extension?

- Unfortunately, no but, you can always apply again next year!

Scholarship Funding:

16. How much is the scholarship?

- This is a one-time, non-renewable disbursement of $3,500.

17. What expenses does the scholarship money cover?

- The scholarship covers tuition, books, fees or any other expenses that are billed by the college, university or program.

18. What is not covered by the scholarship?

- Expenses that are not billed by the college, university or program. Examples are items/costs that students pay that are not billed program costs, including housing, meals, transportation or other cost of living expenses.

19. How is the scholarship money dispensed?

- The money is paid by Kappa Gamma Pi directly to the financial department of the Cornaro Scholar's accredited graduate or professional program.

20. How many scholarships are awarded?

- For 2024, there will be two (2) $3,500 scholarships awarded.

Selection and Notification Process:

21. How is the recipient selected?

- A panel of Kappa Gamma Pi members review all applications.
- Evaluation criteria include: academic excellence, academic honors and awards, volunteer work, leadership experience, career aspirations, personal goals, jobs held, financial need, letters of recommendation, and ability to follow application instructions accurately. (These are all elements that applicants have an opportunity to address in their application materials.)
- Applicants are scored based on evaluation criteria. Scores are combined and averaged to rank the applicants for selection.

22. When is the winner announced?

- Notification of the award will be made by July 31.

23. If I don't receive the scholarship, will I be notified?

- Yes, you will be notified via email by July 31. Please be sure that we have the current email address for you should that change after you submit your application.

24. Whom do I contact if I have further questions?

•Contact the Chair of the Cornaro Scholarship Committee via email at cornaro@kappagammapi.org.
